

INFORMATION FOR AUTHORS

The Deakin Law Review is a refereed journal which is published in two issues per year. Contributions of articles and case notes for publication are welcome. They should be submitted on a 3.5" floppy disk along with a hard copy. Authors should also take note of the following guidelines:

1. Books and Periodicals

Books should be cited in the following format:

Clarke, P.H. 1991, Vertical Price Fixing in Australia, Federation Press, Sydney, 27.

Baxt, R. & Kewley, G. (eds), 1990, An Annual Survey of Australian Law 1989, The Law Book Company, Sydney, ch. 6.

Essays from books should be cited as follows:

Waincymer, J., 'Income Tax', in Baxt, R. & Kewley, G. (eds), 1990, An Annual Survey of Australian Law 1989, The Law Book Company, Sydney, 132.

Journal articles should be cited in the following format:

Cassidy, J., 'The Taxation of Insurance Receipts for Personal Injury: Is it all getting a bit much?' (1988) 1 ILJ 67.

2. Headings

Headings should appear in the following format:

- 1. Main Heading
- Sub-heading
- (i) minor heading*

3. Non-sexist Language

Gender-specific language should be avoided whenever possible.

4. Repeat Citations

Ibid

Where a citation is given in a footnote and is then repeated exactly in the following format, the abbreviation 'ibid' should be used.

Id

Where a citation is given in a footnote and is then repeated with a slight variation in the following footnote, such as a different page number, the abbreviation 'id' should be used.

Op cit, Loc cit, Supra and Infra

These abbreviations should not be used.

